

2010 ASBA Education Foundation Scholarship Recipients

Presented by the
Arkansas School
Boards Association

Kelsey Bibbs

- Cedarville High School
- Daughter of Cedarville School Board member Terry Bibbs
- Plans to attend the University of Arkansas at Fort Smith

Victoria Samuelson

- Vilonia High School
- Daughter of Vilonia School Board member Mark Samuelson
- Plans to study business at Ouachita Baptist University

Clara Ugbade

- Hot Springs High School
- Daughter of Hot Springs School Board member Debbie Ugbade
- Plans to study international business at the University of Arkansas

Brittane Vaught

- Horatio High School
- Daughter of Horatio School Board member Jonathan Vaught
- Plans to study health and science at Central Baptist College

Jessica Wehmeyer

- Mountain Home High School
- Daughter of Mountain Home School Board member Bill Wehmeyer
- Plans to study pre-professional/pre-med at the University of Arkansas

Thanks to the 2010 ASBA Scholarship Selection Committee

- Dr. Paul Hance, Chairperson, Batesville
 - ASBA Vice President
- Damon Daniels, Centerpoint
 - Region 10 Director
- Steve Huddleston, Sloan-Hendrix
 - Region 3 Director
- Johnny Lockley, DeWitt
 - Region 9 Director
- Brenda McKown, McRae
 - Region 6 Director

Congratulations and best wishes from ASBA to these outstanding students!

